6. Office of Equal Opportunity and Compliance (OEOC)

The University of Arkansas requires a variety of trainings for all employees through the Office of Equal Opportunity and Compliance. These trainings are valid for three (3) years from completion date. Offered on Everfi, the trainings are designed to be taken online. If you have questions about OEOC training, please contact Wayne Bell, Training Coordinator, Bwb03@uark.edu

The following trainings are required of all University of Arkansas employees:

- What is Discriminatory Harassment for Employees? This course is offered through Everfi and contains two modules: Managing Bias and Code of Conduct. Both sections must be completed to be considered compliant on this training.

- Bridges: Title IX. This course is offered through Everfi and contains one module: Bridges: Building a Supportive Community. This module must be completed to be considered compliant on this training. This course is designed for employees and is independent of any Title IX training that may have been taken as a student.

- Disability Awareness. This course is offered through Everfi and contains one module: Accommodating Disabilities. This module must be completed to be considered compliant on this training.

All Everfi courses should be single sign on using your UARK ID (do not include @uark.edu). If you have difficulty accessing course materials, please contact OEOC@uark.edu. If you are currently compliant on one (or any) of the above listed trainings, they will not appear in your Everfi profile. If you believe there is an error in your training record, please contact OEOC@uark.edu.

For those employees who serve or will serve on a university search committee, the OEOC currently offers both in-person and online versions of the required Search Committee Training. To request access to this training, please place a request on the OEOC website.

Finally, for employees who are in a supervisory role, the OEOC requires two additional courses. “What is Discriminatory Harassment for Supervisors?” and “Responding to a Reasonable Accommodation Request.” These courses are only offered in-person and can be registered for through the OEOC website.

7. ITS: Adobe Creative Cloud

Adobe Creative Cloud includes applications for productivity such as Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign, Acrobat Pro, Bridge, Premiere Pro, After Effects and more. Each application provides training tutorials. Adobe Creative Cloud is available free of charge for faculty and staff to install on up to two devices at a time. Annual subscriptions are also available at a discount for student or personal use. Adobe Creative Cloud information. For support, contact help.uark.edu.
8. ITS: File Storage Solutions

☐ If your file is too large or too sensitive for sending by email then use Box or OneDrive.

- Box is an online cloud storage and collaboration tool available to all students, faculty and staff. Log in with your @uark.edu email address and password.

- OneDrive is available to all students, faculty and staff from Office365. To get started with OneDrive, log into Office 365 with your UARK email address and password and then click the OneDrive tile.

See the ITS comparison chart to help you choose the file storage solution that best fits your needs. For support, contact help.uark.edu.
